

Around the Region: Summer Camps in the Cities and Townships

No matter where you live, there are lots of camp options to keep the kids busy this summer! Here's what the Cities and Townships in Waterloo Region are offering for Summer 2022.

Cambridge

The City of Cambridge offers fun and affordable summer camp opportunities that include crafts, sports/ esports, music, robotics, digital art and more for kids ages 4-12. Programs take place at various sites and school locations in Cambridge. Check out the City of Cambridge website to see all of the different camps available, and to register.

2022 City of Cambridge Summer Camps

Kitchener

Looking for a camp that includes a daily swim? A camp that's happening in your neighbourhood? Or perhaps a specialized program for campers with special needs? The City of Kitchener provides a wide variety of affordable camps that are designed to be fun and engage kids.

2022 City of Kitchener Summer Camps

Waterloo

The City of Waterloo has several camp, so there's sure to be a camp near you. And with themed camps that include Outdoor Adventure, Photography and Youth Leadership development programs, the toughest decision will be narrowing down your child's choices!

2022 City of Waterloo Summer Camps

Township of Wellesley

The Paradise and District Lions Club offers a quality day camp for children ages 4 to 13 years at the St Clements Community Centre in July and August. The Conestoga Bible Camp located at Conestoga Dam is offered during the summer months, and there are Day camps at Camp Ki-Wa-Y located on Paradise Lake.

2022 Township of Wellesley Camps

Township of Wilmot

The Township of Wilmot offers a variety of quality day camps for children ages 6 (by the end of the calendar year) to 13 years at the Wilmot Recreation Complex. Whether your child is interested in arts & crafts, drama, science, nature and the environment, there is something for everyone!

2022 Township of Wilmot Camps

Township of Woolwich:

The Township of Woolwich offers a variety of summer day camps for children ages 5 to 14 years at the Breslau Community Centre and the Woolwich Memorial Centre. Whether your child is interested in arts & crafts, drama, science or sports, they have something for everyone!

2022 Township of Woolwich Camps